Purcellville food pantry in need of supplies

Tuesday, Nov. 23 by Rachel Leon | 0 comments | Email this story

The Tree of Life Food Pantry in Purcellville is in need of more food as it enters the holiday season.

The food pantry opened a year ago. It delivers food to families and individuals in western Loudoun.

For a list of drop-off locations and the foods accepted, visit treeoflifefoodpantry.org. For more information on how to donate, volunteer or receive supplies, call 703-554-3595. The food pantry promises confidentiality to all families who receive supplies.
